Media Reflects Life and Faith Therefore, We Work To:

- Raise awareness concerning the importance, validity and integration of media, print and electronic, which reflect the Gospel values.
- Educate and foster development of the connection between life and faith.
- Explore ways to integrate technology into catechesis.
- Promote media literacy and the media resource center as vital components of the life and work of the Church.
- Provide a forum for mutual support and exchange of ideas that concern diocesan media professionals and the management of their resource centers.
- Collaborate with publishers for the development of credible formational media resources that embrace the diverse needs of all God's people.

KATHY DOYLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Kathy Doyle was an active member of our NACMP (National Association of Catechetical Media Professionals) group for many years. She is fondly remembered as a friend, as well as a valued colleague. In Kathy's memory, NACMP has established a scholarship fund. This fund will offer partial assistance to selected NACMP members who are having financial difficulty attending our annual meeting. If you would like to donate to this scholarship fund, you may do so by adding the amount into your registration fee and indicating this on the registration form. You may also send a donation separate from your registration to our treasurer. Please make your check out to NACMP and send it to:

NACMP; c/o Diane O'Connor; Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston; 2403 Holcombe Blvd; Houston, TX 77021

Please indicate the scholarship fund in your detail or memo portion of your check.

If you have questions, are interested in applying for the scholarship, or need further information, please contact Diane O'Connor through her e-mail at doconnor@archgh.org.

Availability of scholarships will depend on donations. Thank you for helping your fellow NACMP members.
